LORETTA A. PRESKA, U.S.D.J.

Dear Judge Preska:

I am counsel for Jailyn Hilliard, one of the defendants in the above-captioned case. The Court has scheduled a conference for April 3, 2024, at noon. I write to ask the Court to permit Ms. Hilliard and me to appear by video-conference. Because Ms. Hilliard resides in Little Rock, Arkansas, and she has full-time employment, requiring her to travel to New York would be expensive and disruptive.

This Court has the authority to permit Ms. Hilliard to appear remotely. See United States v. Salim, 690 F.3d 115, 121 (2d Cir. 2012) (In non-capital case a defendant may waive the right to be present as long as the waiver is knowing and voluntary). I have advised Ms. Hilliard that she has a right to appear in person (and an obligation to do so unless excused by the Court). She understands that right and will waive it if the Court grants this request. This Court has previously permitted Ms. Hilliard to appear remotely.

I have consulted with Assistant United States Attorney Jane Chong, and the government has no objection to this request.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/
Stephanie Carvlin
